

Iduapriem Wins Mining Company of the Year at 4th Ghana Business Awards

Then Ag. MD, Ing. Isaac Boakye Aduenin receiving the Mining Company of the Year Award from Roland Affail Monney, President of the Ghana Journalists Association

AngloGold Ashanti Iduapriem Mine achieved another historic feat on Friday, 29 October 2021, as the company won the coveted Mining Company of the Year Award at the 4th Ghana Business Awards held at the Kempinski Gold Coast Hotel in Accra.

Iduapriem Mine was adjudged the 2021 Mining Company of the Year following sterling performance in key aspects, including corporate social investment, contribution to the economy, local content, health, and safety, as well as environmental management.

The Ghana Business Awards is a prestigious awards programme that recognises and rewards excellence across all sectors in Ghana. It is organised by Globe Productions in partnership with Graphic Business, Institute of Directors Ghana, and Media General.

The Awards provide a platform to recognize individuals and companies that play a significant role in the growth and development of their business sector, while recognising the key functions within the sector that promote growth and sustainability.

The 4th Edition sought to celebrate achievement, innovation, and brilliance within the business environment.

The award is supervised by an Awarding Board made up of eminent and distinguished individuals from various industries.

Iduapriem Mine picked the award for Excellence in Health, Safety and Environmental Quality (HSEQ) at the 3rd edition held last year.

From left to right: Emmanuel Baidoo, Senior Manager – Sustainability, Obuasi Mine; Stephen Adjei, Senior Manager – Sustainability, Iduapriem Mine; Ing. Isaac Boakye Aduenin, Ag. MD, Iduapriem Mine; and Irene Hans-Anderson, Superintendent. Contracts & Procurement, Iduapriem Mine