Iduapriem Supports Apiate Explosion Victims with Essential Medical Supplies

Manager for Health services, Dr Kwesi Gyeni Annor presenting the items to the Medical Superintendent of the Municipal Hospital, Dr Frederick Sarpong and Municipal Health Director, Madam Caroline Effah Otoo

As a sign of solidarity, the Iduapriem Team has visited victims of the Apiate explosion, which occurred on Thursday, 20 January 2022, and donated essential medical supplies worth GH¢90,000 to the Tarkwa Municipal Hospital, Apinto Government Hospital, and the Bogoso Municipal Health Directorate to assist in taking care of those on admission. Some of the items include gauze rolls, crepe bandages, infusions, drez solutions, plaster rolls, pain killers, nasal plumbs, methylated spirit, antibiotics, surgical and examination gloves, among others.

Dr Kwesi Gyeni Annor, Manager for Health services, who presented the items on behalf of the Mine, expressed Management's condolences to the bereaved families, victims and the entire community for the unfortunate incident. He reiterated the Mine's commitment to working with the health officials and relevant agencies to help ameliorate the plight of victims and restore life to normalcy.

Receiving the items on behalf of the Health Directorate and Ghana Health Service, the Tarkwa Nsuaem Municipal Health Director, Madam Caroline Effah Otoo, commended the Mine for the swift intervention and promised to ensure that the items would be put to good use to assist in taking care of the injured victims on admission.
