

IDUAPRIEM MINE NEWSFLASH

ANGLOGOLDASHANTI

IDUAPRIEM MINE
GHANA

DATE: 5 DECEMBER 2022

Iduapriem Ladies Shine at 8th Ghana Mining Industry Awards

Shirley Oteng-Seifah receiving the Female Mining Professional of the Year (Technical) Award from Angela List, Managing Director – Adamus Resources, at the 8th Ghana Mining Industry Awards

Female employees of AngloGold Ashanti Iduapriem Mine took the spotlight at the 8th Ghana Mining Industry Awards held on Friday, 2 December 2022 at the Movenpick Ambassador Hotel in Accra, as Manager -Tailings Operations, Shirley Oteng-Seifah, was crowned the Female Mining Professional of the Year (Technical).

Also, Senior Manager – Finance, Rose Amoah, picked the 2nd runner-up award for the newly introduced Female Mining Professional of the Year Non-Technical category. Iduapriem Mine, on the other hand, was adjudged 2nd runner-up for Best Mining Company in Diversity and Inclusion.

The Ghana Mining Industry Awards is organised under the auspices of the Ghana Chamber of Mines to celebrate outstanding achievements and excellence in the mining industry. This year's event was on the theme: “Advancing a legacy of sustainable and responsible mining through innovation and partnerships.” Congratulations to Shirley, Rose, and the entire Iduapriem team for this enviable feat.

IDUAPRIEM MINE
NEWSFLASH

Rose Amoah receiving the award for 2nd runner-up Female Mining Professional of the Year (Non-Technical)

Kennedy Ewuntomah, Senior Mgr. - HR receiving the award for 2nd runner-up Best Mining Company in Diversity and Inclusion

Team Iduapriem at the 8th Ghana Mining Industry Awards, led by the Managing Director, Samuel Boakye Pobee (arrowed)